CATARRH!

A NEW TREATMENT BY

W. N. DAVIS, M. D., M. C. P. S. O.

Graduate of "Chicago Homeopathic College," "Pulte Medical College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, Canada."

HOMEOPATHIC SPECIALIST of Diseases of Ear, Nose, Throat, Chest, and all Chronic Diseases.

TREATMENT.

Starting with the theory now generally be- lieved, by the most scientific men, that the disease is due to the presence of living parasites in the tissues, we devote our treatment to their destruction, and this catarrh is cured.

Frequently from one to three applications of this new opiate the object, but constitutional medicines are required, the blood or liver are impaired.

In this manner every case of catarrh, no matter whether of one or forty years standing, can be cured, and is the only means by which catarrh ever has been permanently cured.

Fully one-half the cases of so-called con- sumption are due to catarrh and can be cured by our new system.

Simple nasal catarrh and pharyngitis can be treated at a distance by correspondence. A list of questions, but if lungs are involved an examin- ation at office is necessary.

Consultation and Examination Free

The following testimonial of a gentleman well known in Los Angeles, who has a law office at 45½ North Spring street, will show how quickly catarrh can be cured:

This is to certify that I am a regularly quali- fied physician, but not practicing, and have always believed catarrh of the chronic nasal variety to be an incurable affliction, but Dr. W. N. Davis' new treatment and his system of inhaling it has changed my mind, and determined to try it in the case of one of my friends, and did so with the most satis- factory results, as improvement was the first date, and one prescription effected a cure. This case was of perennial catarrh, and of a very severe type. I can recommend Dr. Davis to those similarly afflicted. S. HALEY, M. D. Los Angeles, August 1, 1885.

The above lands are almost level; only suf- ficient descent for drainage. They are all damp lands; water on any of them at six feet, and located in artesian belt; abundance of water in them for all time to come. The soil is a black sandy loam, capable of producing any- thing, but especially adapted to alfalfa and stock. A portion of the land is now covered with wild grasses. We refer especially to the 5775 acres. There is not one foot of waste land in the whole lot, and one foot of waste land in California so cheap and so good, and not one acre in the whole lot that will not bring $100 per acre in the next five years.

Palpitation of the Heart and various other chronic diseases produced by this loathsome disease,

Having had severe hemorrhages, severe cough, night sweats, etc., I was forced to ex- periment with different remedies known to the profession generally, without obtaining relief. I have at last discovered a remedy which has cured me, and I now offer this remedy to those similarly afflicted.

Those who wish to consult me personally can call at my office, Rooms 4 and 5 Bryson Block, South Spring street, Los Angeles, Cal., where they can obtain this wonderful Catarrh Remedy, and full instructions to use it, with my assured success as upon myself.

HEAD, THROAT AND CHEST,

EYE, EAR AND HEART,

Also all Chronic Diseases, and Diseases Incident to Females, Success- fully Treated by

M. HILTON WILLIAMS, M. D., M. C. P. S. O.

975 N. Main St., Los Angeles, Cal (Next Diamond House.)

CONSUMPTION.

The earlier symptoms of this disease are a sense of weariness upon little exertion, a dis- position to remain passive and idle, a peculiar sensitiveness to the effects of cold and a short- ness of breath upon moving quickly or ascend- ing a hill or stairs, a slight hacking cough, with or without expectoration, flying pains throughout the chest or back, or under the shoulder blades. The symptoms are worse towards or during the night, slight fever in the afternoon, cold feet and hands, and in many cases blue lividity of the lips and roots of the finger nails.

The more advanced symptoms are wasting of flesh, pallor, chills and fever, night sweats, expectorations of yellow pus from the ulcers or cavities in the lungs, with or with- out a deposition of the chest, increasing weak- ness and at last a closing up of the air pas- sages, causing strangulation or suffocation of the patient for want of power to expectorate the mucous from the lungs.

Heretofore the treatment of consumption has been very unsatisfactory, both alike to the physicians and their patients, but luckily since the discovery of the Koran system of treatment 25 years ago, thousands of cases have been com- pletely cured, where, had it not been for this wonderful remedy, either failure to combat the evils of the disease would have continued up to the present time. The system of Med- icated Inhalations is the only means by which these diseases can be cured. And they are recommended by the highest authority, both in Europe and America. And here we would draw the distinction between Inhalation and Atomization. Some persons suppose they are the same in every respect, while nothing is further from the truth. In Atomization the liquid or medicine takes the form of a spray, which only reaches the throat, while Inhala- tion, the remedy to be inhaled, medicates the air we breathe, and is conveyed directly into the air passages of the lungs in a ordinary air. By this means we are enabled to dissolve the hardened mucous in the lungs, ease the cough, facilitate expectoration, contract and heal ulcers and cavities after all hope of cure by the ordinary methods is past. Perseve- desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedy at home as well as at our office. Medicines sent by express. Inconvenience or hindrance to business whatever.

These medications are applicable to all diseases of the respiratory organs, including throat dis- eases, asthma, bronchitis, consumption, and thousands of cases are cured by this mode of treatment when nothing else can reach them.

Consultation free and price within the reach of all.

The very best of references given from those already cured. And we would particu- larly refer to those afflicted with the incur- sity of direct medication—Inhalations—as well as the most favorable climatic influences, if you wish to avoid the sad experience of hun- dreds of invalids who depend upon the climate alone, and arrive only out of ten die in con- sequence of this very thing.

Those who desire to consult me in regard to their cases had better call at the office for an examination, but if impossible to visit the office personally, may write for "List of Ques- tions" and circular, both of which will be sent free of charge. Address,

The above lands are almost level; only suf- ficient descent for drainage. They are all damp lands; water on any of them at six feet, and located in artesian belt; abundance of water in them for all time to come. The soil is a black sandy loam, capable of producing any- thing, but especially adapted to alfalfa and stock. A portion of the land is now covered with wild grasses. We refer especially to the 5775 acres. There is not one foot of waste land in the whole lot, and one foot of waste land in California so cheap and so good, and not one acre in the whole lot that will not bring $100 per acre in the next five years.

THE City Council took high ground on the subject of high license in the ordinance adopted at yesterday's ses- sion. They literally "socked it to" the saloons.

THE San Diego Sun, bragging about alfalfa crops down in that neck o' sage- brush, asserts that eleven tons of alfalfa were cut from a single acre on an El Cajon ranch in one season, and, that in the first year of planting. This is a whopper—the crop, we mean.

A GRIM museum has been gathered for the use of the Anthropological Con- gress which is to meet shortly in Rome. It comprises 700 skulls of criminals, photographs of 3000, and the brains of more than 150 convicts, besides thou- sands of autographs, poems, sketches and special instruments, the works of criminals, and voluminous records con- cerning this class of people. Maps, masks and various other aids for the study of the philosophy of crime are provided; and all the notabilities in the science of criminal anthropology will take part in the conference. Coroner O'Donnell should be present with his recent rare find.

THE wriggling Herald, after a good deal of uncandid apology, hair-splitting and absurd squirming about the Sepul- veda case, admits the fact, charged by the TIMES, that he was turned out of his place as Deputy by Collector Ellis, but insists that it would have been the correct thing on the part of the TIMES to allow "his retirement from office to appear as his voluntary act," when it was not! This, as might have been expected from that partisan and truth-suppressing source, is highly absurb. We aimed not to suppress the facts, as the Herald did, but to publish them as they are. We succeeded. That is all.

ANY one who reads the following let- ter addressed to the editor of the In- dianapolis Times from a Democrat recently appointed Chief of the Division of Records in the Pension Office, at the request of Senator Voorhees, will not wonder that the Senator opposed "writin' and spellin'" as a requisite for official position. The following is the letter verbatim:

WASHINGTON D C August 29 1885—

Mr. Faulkner cannot be accused of being "one of them dam literary fel- lers." He Rote himself down as on the contrary quite the reverse.

OREGON papers declare that it is not all a rumor about Mr. Henry Villard laying his plans to assume the Presi- dency and management of the Northern Pacific Railroad. It is expected that he will accomplish this event through the influence of the great Rock Island Company. It is no longer a secret that the Rock Island folks have obtained large blocks of Northern Pacific stock, and that they have received the Villard and Billings interest, with the under- standing that Villard is to be given the Presidency of the road. The object of Mr. Villard's visit to Germany is said to be to gather up the proxies of the German stockholders. The sudden ad- vance in Northern Pacific and Oregon Transcontinental stocks would seem to indicate that a battle of railroad growth is antiicipated.

THE time-serving, truth-suppressing, policy-playing, cowardly and cunning Evening Express is pleased to shovel off the following little load of dirt at the door of the TIMES:

The change of tone of our esteemed contemporary with respect to County Recorder Miles suggests that spirit of Joan of Arc, Democracy of Somewhere else, the other fellow's back is turned. The use of such terms as "felony," etc., has been suddenly and discreetly dropped.

For answer to the above contemptible insinuation the TIMES repeats its declara- tion that it has published no more than the simple truth about the case in ques- tion; it has quoted the law of the case, and depicted the manner in which that law was infracted, and its charges have not been disproved. The TIMES has at the same time charged no inten- tional or conscious criminality against the officer named, and has no apology to make to anybody for what it has said or published in the premises. And particularly does the TIMES refuse to qualify its truthful and justifiable pub- lications at the demand of vicious, partisan-tainted and truth-suppressing journals of the Herald-Express type.

THE Herald, in its special partisan pleading, continues to suppress facts, muddle the case of Recorder Miles, and damage that unfortunate officer by its malapropos defense. In its "blind par- tisan rage" and insane desire to make head against the TIMES for what it has done in the way of publishing, not suppressing, the undisputed facts in this case, that flamboyant and fecund fabricator of fiction, the hide-bound Herald, makes an exhibition of itself, perverts the facts, assassinates the truth, and writes itself down a burro de jack. In all of its mouthings and face-makings at the TIMES, the Herald has not even undertaken to disprove the absolute accuracy of our statements concerning this case, except in the one trifling par- ticular that it was not before the Grand Jury, upon which point it appears that the TIMES was mistaken. The fact is of minor consequence, how- ever. The Herald harps on the alleged "stinging rebuke" administered by that body. If the preposterous protest promulgated by the Grand Jury was a stinging rebuke, the epidermis of the TIMES has not found it out. The Her- ald has much to say about "partisan malice," "hounding down a long- proved and worthy public ser- vant to his political death," and so on for quantity. This sort of idle clap- trap and vicious nonsense does not move us. But who does not re- member how the Herald and its proscriptive Democratic partisans as- sailed and pursued Charley Lamb, the predecessor of Miles in office, at the time when Mr. Lamb was fiercely arraigned for no graver offense than putting a construction upon the law governing the Recorder's fees which did not happen to suit his political ene- mies? It was a case wherein no crimi- nality, or criminal intent, on the part of Lamb was charged by any fair and impartial man; yet, despite this, the Herald "jumped onto" the then Re- corder with both of its ugly feet and did its best to stamp him out—but failed, of course. Does that prurient journal remember?

POLITICS.

The New York Republican Convention at Saratoga.

A HORDE OF CANDIDATES ON HAND.

Civil Service and Other Live Topics Dis- cussed—No Nomination Yesterday, and None May Be Made To-day.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Times.

SARATOGA, Sept. 22.—The morning opened with bright sunshine and at an early hour the corridors of the leading hotels presented an animated scene. The convention will assemble in the Casino at 12 o'clock. Indications point to a very lively scrimmage for the nomination for Governor. Were it possible for New York city men to join hands upon a candidate this morning before going into convention there is no doubt that such man would secure the nomination with a hur- rah; but all hope of this have been aban- doned for the present, and the situation is decidedly mixed. Out of several hundred Republicans now in the field, there is not one man rash enough to predict who will be nominated.

THE CONVENTION BEGINS BUSINESS.

At 11:20 a. m. James D. Warren, Chair- man of the State Convention, called the convention to order. The roll having been called, the Chairman announced that the State Convention had agreed upon Senator Warner Miller for tem- porary chairman. [Applause.]

In his address, Mr. Miller called atten- tion to the fact that the Republican party of New York for the first time in twenty- five years was confronted by both Federal and State governments in the hands of the Democracy. By future generations, he said, the heroes of the late war would be placed alongside the Revolutionary heroes of our first period. He advocated a rigid adherence to the protection of American industries and American labor. [Cheers.] When we turned over to the opposition the civil service of the govern- ment, no better civil service existed under the sun. Referring to the political com- plexion of the Southern States, the speak- er maintained that, throughout the length and breadth of the land, there was not to be found a single government which holds the reins of government by the will of the people. The government, he said, to prove this statement, only asked for a fair field and a fair fight. Upon the ques- tion of civil-service of the government, Miller said the Republican party had put the law into practical use and were com- mitted to it. He would suggest, how- ever, that the Civil Service Commission- ers be at once summoned together and directed to add a clause providing that all jail birds and ex-convicts are forbid- den to hold office. This, he thought, would greatly relieve the President of the United States. He closed by pre- dicting a victory in November next. The chairman was authorized to appoint the usual committees, and the convention took a recess until 4:30 p. m.

It was 4:50 p. m. when the convention was called to order. The Chair announced that the first business in order was the report of the Committee on Con- tested Seats. General Sharp, chairman of the committee, reported in favor of recognizing the contestants in the first Albany district and the regular delegation from the second Albany district. The report was adopted as respects the First district.

A motion was made by Wm. B. Woodin, of Auburn, that in order to have perfect good feeling, both delegations from the second Albany district be admitted, each member to have half a vote. This motion called out rather a sharp debate, in which it was charged that the regular delegation represented a combination with the Democrats, to which it was re- plied that the time had passed when a man must be set down as a Democrat be- cause he bore an Irish name. The report of the committee was then unanimously adopted.

The Committee on Permanent Organ- ization reported for permanent chairman Hon. Jas. W. Husted, and the list of sec- retaries comprised the names of Vrooman, Chickering, Sterns and Barker, and also a long list of vice-presidents. The report was adopted.

Amid great applause General Husted took the chair. He spoke briefly and, among other things, he said that honest money, an honest ballot, an honest count, and protection to every form of American industry, will be forever the cardinal doctrines of the Republican party. We stand to-day on hallowed ground. On yonder mountain, in sight of that historic battle field where the Continental soldiers won a victory that made the nation, died the great captain who, by his prowess and his skill, saved for all time what the Continental soldier had gained. Under the shadow of that grand name we meet to-day to renew our fidelity to the prin- ciples for which he fought, and so fight it out ourselves on that line until the leaves fall in November. (Applause.)

At the conclusion of Mr. Hus- ted's speech a motion was made and adopted that the convention proceed with the nomination of candidates for Governor.

Charles D. Baker, of Steuben county, placed in nomination the name of Ira Davenport, of Steuben county.

Van Allen, of New York city, followed with a tribute to Hon. Levi P. Morton, whose name he placed in nomination.

Petroleum for Fuel.

A telegram from San Francisco last week stated that the Southern Pacific Railway Company were preparing to adopt petroleum as a fuel for running their engines, and that the work of putting in the burners had already commenced. It is well known that the Southern Pacific people have had experiments with petroleum in hand for two or three years past, and they ought to be well satisfied of its capacities by this time. If they are now introducing the petroleum burners in their engines they are probably putting them there to stay. At a late meeting of the Manufacturers' Association in this city, a gentleman who evidently had some inside information on the subject, stated that, computing the cost of crude petroleum at $1.70 a barrel and coal at $5 a ton, the company had found that they could run an engine with oil at 60 per cent. of the cost of coal. But at the prevailing rate, five and a half or six cents the gallon, it is too expensive. A monopoly of the product acts as an embargo upon its use.

The general acceptance of petroleum as a fuel is inevitable if a difference exists in its favor financially, provided, of course, that it does as good work as other fuels.

The burning of petroleum for steam generating is not a new thing in Los Angeles. The scarcity and high price of wood and coal early set our manufacturers to casting about for other available fuels, and several substances not in general use were tried. The writer remembers distinctly when bran was shoveled into the furnace by some of our flouring mills. Brea has been used to some extent, and is still burned in isolated cases. But it is a dirty fuel, clogging up the boiler flues and proving unsatisfactory in many ways.

To Governor Stoneman belongs the honor of first burning crude petroleum, for steam, in Los Angeles county. His apparatus, compared with that of more modern invention, was crude and awkward, but it worked fairly, and furnished the basis for experiments and subsequent improvements. It was operated in his winery at Los Robles.

Petroleum was first introduced for steam purposes in Los Angeles in 1880, in the Beaudry Water Works. A burner, modeled after the one on Governor Stoneman's ranch, was first used, but this was shortly replaced by a patented burner of E. A. Edwards. The operation of the petroleum burner was voted a great success, and to the present day it remains in use. Petroleum has since been used for fuel in various other establishments, notably the City Foundry and Lankershim's Mill.

The principle of the petroleum burner is very simple. The oil is stored in a tank some distance from the furnace, to insure safety. Thence it is conducted in a pipe to the furnace, sufficient fall being given to cause the oil to run into the fire box by natural gravitation. At the mouth of the furnace a small steam pipe is introduced in the oil pipe for the purpose of injecting the oil into the furnace in a jet. It is necessary first to raise steam with a wood or coal fire. A few pound's of steam will start the injector, and then the fire is properly regulated by gauges, and there is no further trouble. Looking into the furnace door, with the burner in operation, one discovers a white flame pouring from the mouth of the burner, like a blaze from an immense blow-pipe. It is necessary to have a fire-back of brick for the flame to play against, as it is too intense for any ordinary iron plate, and would quickly burn out a boiler if directly applied. The great advantage in burning petroleum in this way is that it does not readily choke the boiler flues, and no heaving in of fuel or stoking is required. The use of the burner has been demonstrated as perfectly safe, and, if adjusted as stated above, it is no more destructive to a boiler than any ordinary fire.

We confess to a belief that there is a great future before petroleum as a steam generator. Los Angeles county is provided with an almost exhaustless store of petroleum, and if it comes to be generally adopted for steam purposes, at prices that will justify its use, the great riddle of local manufactures is solved.

THE illustrations of "Jenny June's" letters from Carlsbad, now being published by a syndicate of papers, are probably the most atrocious bits of art that ever got into print. For a view of Stadt Park, says the Indianapolis Journal, "the reader is presented with a view of two mud pies flanked by a cigar box. A view of the Sprudel spring represents two women standing by a bath-tub, in which is a fat man wrapped in a sheet. The press of this country is doing what it can to encourage art by showing just what art should not be." We dety the San Francisco Chronicle and the Sacramento Bee, which belong to the J. June syndicate, to rise up and defend this wood-butchery.

IT is a fact that the greatest depth of water yet found in the world is in the Pacific Ocean. In latitude 11 degrees 24 minutes north, longitude 143 degrees 16 minutes east, English scientific explorers dropped the sounding line 4575 fathoms, about five and one-fifth miles. And yet how insignificant is this depth compared to the distance required to penetrate through to the other side of the world.—[San Diego Union.

Yes, and San Diego's town site goes clear through!

PACIFIC MAIL persists in being a naughty child and doubles up its fists at Uncle Sam, and declares that it will not carry the letters. Uncle Sam's threat to cut off the million dollars annual pin-money has no effect whatever in bringing the child to terms.

Twelfth—That Superintendent of Streets fill chuck-holes and otherwise repair Seventh street from Main to Alameda, and Eighth street from San Pedro to Alameda. So ordered.

THE LICENSE ORDINANCE.

License ordinance. Dr. French moved to postpone one week. Lost. Messrs. Brown, Hamilton, Holbrook, Lambie, Santee, Sinsabaugh and Velsir voting no, and only French and McGarry yes.

Ordinance taken up by sections, on Mr. Brown's motion. All went on smoothly, each section being adopted without friction, even the high raise on liquor licenses being accepted with very little discussion. Rules suspended and ordinance, which had consumed nearly an hour, passed. The most important feature of the ordinance was the raising of the licenses for saloons and all other places where liquors are sold or given away at retail, to $50 per month. The present rate is $10. There were but two votes against this raise—McGarry and French.

On Dr. Sinsabaugh's motion, Superintendent of Streets was instructed to put Figueroa street in condition for Fair travel.

On Dr. French's motion, the Clerk was ordered to supply the Chief of Police with a city map.

Mr. Bullis moved City Surveyor propose grade for Workman street, from Downey avenue to Daley. Carried.

Following bids for flume on Zanja 2—about 1300 feet—were read: D. F. Donegan, 39 cents per foot; Peter Keenan, 38½ cents. Committee on Zanjas.

Following bid was read on Bunker Hill avenue sewer: H. Gerson, 77 cents per cement; if glazed pipe is used, there will be a charge of 30 cents for each "Y." Committee on Sewers.

Dr. French moved City Attorney draw necessary ordinance to have new city bonds lithographed. Carried.

SCALE BUGS.

The Horticultural Commission presented the following communication:

To the Honorable City Council: This Commission is in daily receipt of complaints in regard to the condition of public zanjas and streets in certain sections of the city, as prolific breeding grounds and dangerous sources of contagion and spreading of the cottony cushion scale. Zanja No. 2, crossing the property of Laughlin Brothers, east of Alameda street, has been allowed to become foul and grown over with almost every kind of weeds. These weeds are badly infested, notwithstanding the efforts to have the Superintendent of Streets clean them. Owners of orchards below are fearful of irrigating, through the ditch, knowing that the water is almost certain to carry the white scale onto their grounds from infested weeds above. In fact, several orchards are positively known to have received infection from this cause, and several owners of orchards have this summer preferred to allow their trees to suffer for water, rather than incur such risks. Orchards owned by Messrs. Archibald, Cooper, Miller, McDonald, Hooper, Dalton, Vail, Godfrey, Montague and others, have within a few weeks found their trees showing signs of the scale, and beyond doubt it came to them through the irrigation ditches.

These properties represent from ten to twenty acres each of the finest orchards in the city. We demand for their protection—and many others in similar situations—prompt and energetic action by the city officials in cleaning all zanjas, streets and shade trees in the city which are infested with white scale.

J. R. DOBBINS,
GEORGE RICE,
S. MCKINLAY.

Received and Superintendent of Streets ordered to do work.

PETITIONS.

Of David Mulrein and fifteen other residents of Temple street, west of Pearl, and that vicinity, for a fire hydrant, their neighborhood being now absolutely unprotected. Committee on Fire and Water.

Of N. P. Campbell, for refunding of $36 28 overpaid taxes. Committee on Finance.

Of M. Haley and J. O. Sullivan, asking Council to investigate an alleged failure to provide them with irrigating water on ditch 7. Committee on Zanjas.

Of M. Hoff, for rebate of $9.82 taxes. Committee on Finance.

Of F. H. Steeles, foreman, for pair of headlights for Vigilant hook and ladder truck. Referred to special committee to see what is needed for the fire department. Committee: Brown, McGarry and Holbrook.

Of A. S. McDonald for leave to grade in front of his property on Second street from Bunker Hill avenue to Hope street. Board of Public Works.

Of Hammel & Denker and thirty-eight others, protesting against the removal of the electric light mast from the corner of Spring and Third to Fort and Third. Committee on Gas, and action postponed until committee reports.

Of Mrs. S. J. Oliver for use of dirt in front of her property on Hope street, between Third and Fourth. Board of Public Works.

Of G. A. Howard and fifty-five others for means of discharge into Los Angeles river of winter rain water which runs down Main street south of Eighth, damaging their property. Board of Public Works.

Of W. H. Montague and others, asking that zanjas and shade trees be cleaned of white-scale, which is being carried into their lands thus.

Mr. Brown moved that the Superintendent of Streets clean zanjas and remove infected trees.

Mr. McGarry seconded to have work done by October 1. Carried.

Mr. McMullen, an Inspector, added that there should be a provision to prevent the dumping of rubbish into zanjas. No action.

Of L. Harris & Co., for grade on Charity street between Eighth and Ninth. Referred to Board of Public Works.

Of R. B. Young, for leave to deposit building material at the corner of Fort and Temple. Granted.

Adjourned at 4:55 p. m.

With a Sharp Stick.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: If time were money, your humble scribe would be sweltering in wealth, nothing to do, and plenty of time to do it in, and it is the hardest kind of work to do, consequently the regular appearance of your worthy journal, the TIMES, is manifold and highly welcome. During the last few days we have as much as 105° heat and hotter than the hottest days in Los Angeles last summer; besides Los Angeles, my beloved home, has the delicious sea breeze to fall back on in warm days, which this burg has not (?) yet to offset this, Santa Barbara has got clean streets and gutters. It is one of the wonders that your astute "Sauntere's" smelling nerves have never been salted by a certain fragrance not quite so sweet as the balm of a thousand flowers, yet loud and forcible, crying to the heavens, caused by horses, mules, etc., which are generally leaky, and their leakage remains and ferments, and if those whose duty it is to see to the health of the city, if their noses were the only recipients of this fragrant blessing, they would order the police to twice or oftener pull the fire-plugs at night, and let the water run down the gutters for several hours. The City Water Company will certainly allow this. It is extremely necessary, when we are threatened by the cholera. Chinatown should be taken in hand. Apropos of Chinatown: What about the extension of Los Angeles street? Also all bad yards should be looked after in full earnest; it is of more importance than the white-scale bug circus. There are other things to be looked after, the existence of which injures the good name of Los Angeles, all of which I hear here, and other towns speak about them. All these evils have the effect of keeping away Eastern visitors from Los Angeles. STERNROLD.

(What is it?)

The United States Dispensatory, the text and guide of the druggists' faith and practice, will tell you that it is a shrub, a native of South America, that the leaves are good nerve stimulants and that in the absence of food they will support the strength for a considerable time.

It is infinitely more than this combined with other valuable agents as it is in Compound Coca Cordial it forms the greatest remedy ever offered for the cure of Consumption and all dis-eases of the throat and lungs. This statement we are willing to establish by sending the purchase money to anyone who, after taking one bottle in accordance with the directions, will certify that he received no benefit from its use. We leave the matter entirely to the judgment and conscience of the patient. Davis & Whisler, Druggists, No. 19 South Spring street, Los Angeles.

Stocks and Bonds.

By Telegraph to The Times.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Government bonds dull, steady.

Stocks to-day were extremely dull and altogether featureless. The apathy was increased by the uncertainty that hung over the action taken by a meeting of the representatives of the trunk lines, who were in session all day in Saturday. Already at opening, and in some cases there was a slight advance. This was followed by a decline of ⅛ to ¼ per cent., when the lowest prices of the day were made. Lackawanna was an exception, declining ⅝ per cent., and Western Union Telegraph ⅝ per cent. From noon until 2 o'clock the market was intensely dull, strong, and early losses were recovered and small fractions in addition, so that closing prices are from ¼ to ⅝ per cent. higher than yesterday for a number of the active list. The Northern Pacifics are ⅝ lower and Omaha common ¼ down, while Manitoba is up 2 per cent. The prominent feature of the day's operations was a stronger display by Pacific Mail, which is up ⅝ per cent. Lake Shore was comparatively active and more feverish at times than the rest of the list, but closed with an advance of but ⅛ per cent.

Money easy, 1@1½.
Prime paper, 4@5.
Exchange bills quiet, unchanged; $4 83½, demand, $4 86¾.

Domestic Grain Market.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—The wheat market shows improving signs. Better milling at distant centers has caused the local situation to develop more strength. Desirable parcels of No. 1 shipping find custom at $1 42½. The movement, however, is not quick, though it is not expected that business will again relapse into the positive dullness that has late y prevailed Barley was better, the undertone to the market this morning and values were more firm. Offerings of feed at $1 25 ₱ ctl. were not free, and buyers had to pay $1 27½ for an article that would class anywhere near No. 1 standard. Some holders were asking $1 30 without doing any business. For choice brewing there is a fair inquiry, and continuous trading is in progress at a range of $1 47½@1 40 ₱ ctl. for the bulk of offerings. Chevalier slow.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Wheat active, unsettled, buoyant, strong, closing 2@3c over yesterday; 87½c October; 87½c November. Corn fairly active, firmer, closing ½@¾c over yesterday; 42¾c September, 41¾ October, 39¾@39¾c November. Barley quiet, 70c.

HOME MANUFACTURES.

Local Announcements of Leading Los Angeles Industries.

WHERE TO PURCHASE HOMEMADE GOODS

Notes Among the Foundries, Factories and Other Industrial Establishments—Encouraging Reports—What They Are Doing and What They Can Offer.

The TIMES publishes the following review of a portion of our local industries for the benefit of those who wish to patronize home manufactured goods. The list will be enlarged:

M. S. Baker & Co.'s Foundry.

This is one of the most important manufactories in Southern California, employing a large number of men. The works are located at the corner of Second and Main streets, and manufacture agricultural machinery, mining machinery, oil boring tools, grape crushers, wine machinery, etc. They have made many fine improvements during the past few months including the moving of their machinery into rear buildings, and fitting up their two brick stores in front for retail purposes. They have also put in a new atlas amonoatic engine, which works to perfection. They are making a great success of their mining machinery, having received many large orders. It has been satisfactorily demonstrated that their grape ars are not to be obtained in San Francisco, which accounts for their rapidly growing business. Before purchasing any machinery be sure and call on M. S. Baker & Co.

Fence Factory—The A B C Fence

One of the most successful of the recent local manufacturing enterprises of Los Angeles is the A B C fence factory, No. 205 First street, J. L. Wheeler, proprietor. This fence is the cheapest in the market, and at the same time is very effective. It is composed of laths and posts bound together with the strongest Bessemer steel wire. The fence is proof against cattle and horses, dogs, wolves, chickens and rabbits. It is portable, will not injure cattle, is five times as strong as a board fence, lasts three times as long, so we every farmer who uses it from $50 to $100 a mile, and costs only $1 a rod. It is just the fence for Southern California, where lence material is expensive. It is now in use on hundreds of farms in this county. Call and see it before making a fence.

Los Angeles Cracker Company.

The Los Angeles Cracker Company, corner of Aliso street and Alameda road, has entered upon its third year under most favorable auspices. All kinds of crackers and cakes are manufactured, and the quality is now better than the best imported. The Cracker Company is a local enterprise which should have the support of every one. It is thoroughly deserving. Winter & Co. are the proprietors.

Excelsior Steam Laundry.

The Excelsior Steam Laundry, corner of Date and Alameda streets, is a flourishing local enterprise. The proprietors are Messrs. Bayder & Foyen, Mr. Foyen being manager. The laundry is provided with the splendid Troy washing machinery, including one of the finest mangiers and wringers on the coast. The machinery throughout is so perfect that clothing is washed through it in unimproved, and when completed looks as good as new. All the modern improvements in drying, ironing, etc., have been introduced at the Excelsior, and its numerous advantages have secured it a very large patronage. No Chinese are employed. All considerable extra expense and sometimes inconvenience, the proprietors adhere to their rule to employ white labor only. Two delivery wagons run to all portions of the city and call for and deliver washing.

Los Angeles Soap Company.

The Los Angeles Soap Factory is one of the oldest manufacturing establishments in the southern portion of the State, having been started about a quarter of a century ago. It has been under the management of the present proprietors, Messrs. Workman & Berwin, twelve years, and they have brought it up to a high standard. Their toilet and laundry soaps are famous all over the southern country, and their borax soap is p rticularly in demand by housekeepers. They employ 12 caustic soda, sal soda, soda ash, potash, glycerine, tallow, resin, palm and cocoa oil. They also manufacture whale oil soap, which has been tried and used extensively by the most prominent fruit growers of Southern California, and has proved a most effectual insecticide. The office and works of the Soap Company are located at 40 to 62 Banning street and 307 First street.

Stern's Manufacturing Company

The Stern's Manufacturing Company is a recent and important enterprise. The company owns a large building (20x38) at the corner of Date and Main streets, and manufactures the celebrated Eclipse windmill, wine tanks, hay presses, etc. The Eclipse mill is known the world over for its superior excellent qualities, and it has proved a great success in Southern California. It is very easily put together, and as fairly repairing is one of the lighter branches, and the letting up their two brick stores in front for retail purposes. They have also put in a new atlas amonoatic engine, which works to perfection. They are making a great success of their mining machinery, having received many large orders. It has been satisfactorily demonstrated that their grape ars are not to be obtained in San Francisco, which accounts for their rapidly growing business. Before purchasing any machinery be sure and call on M. S. Baker & Co.

Los Angeles Soda Works.

The Los Angeles Soda Works, H. W. Stoll & Co., proprietors, No. 207 Requena street, is one of the oldest manufactories in Los Angeles, having been in existence eighteen years. They make carbonic acid gas, soda water, ginger ale, mineral waters, champagne cider and all kinds of syrups. Their specialty, however, is the famous "Cream Soda," which for fine flavor has no equal. This soda is superior to any summer drink ever before introduced in Los Angeles, and the demand for it is simply unbounded. Messrs. Stoll & Co. ship their goods to all port-ons of southern California, and their business has grown rapidly. Orders from any part of the city and country will be promptly attended to and satisfaction guaranteed.

Climax Windmill.

The Climax windmill, the invention of J. R. Millard, a Los Angeles gentleman. It was patented December 9, 1884. The owner claims for it that it will run in the lightest breeze that is ever known. It is highly recommended by all who have tried it, including many residents of this city. It is built on the company. Business men of Los Angeles now give nearly all their business to this firm, finding they can get better and cheaper work than in San Francisco, while it is fully equal to that done by the best Eastern houses.

Upholstery and Mattress Factory

The Los Angeles Upholstery and Mattress Factory is located at the corner of Second and Alameda streets. The proprietor, John Alcocer, has long been in business in this city, and has built up a large trade. The factory turns out mattresses and upholstered work of every description, parlor sets, easy chairs, etc. Mr. Alcocer has special facilities for filling large orders for hotels, hospitals, asylums, etc. The special advantage in dealing with this house manufactory is that while just as good an article is furnished as can be imported, prices are much lower. In any repairs, it will be found advantageous to give orders to this house.

Home Manufactures.

Steam Carpet-Beating Company.

The Pioneer Steam Carpet-Beating Company, Seventh street, near Main, telephone No. 217, P. O. box 796, is owned by Robert Sharp & Co., the firm being Robert Sharp and A. H. Heming. The advantages of turning over soiled and dusty carpets to this company are many and much of the disagreeable work of the inevitable semi-annual house-cleaning may be avoided. The method employed has many advantages, of which the principal are the thorough cleaning of the house of dust and dirt, moths, moth eggs and other vermin, and also the fact that it is a great saving in expense, amounting often to as much as 50 per cent. The success of the Steam Carpet-Beating company has been gratifying, and they are certainly well deserving of the patronage of the public.

A COLD DAY.

The Chief of the Fire Department Badly Slighted.

There was a long knife very smoothly and quietly insinuated under the ribs of Councilman Frank B. Day, Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, by his brethren in Council, yesterday. A petition came in for a pair of headlights for the Hook and Ladder truck. Mr. Holbrook remarked that the Fire Department needed a great many things, and would better be put in a special committee to inspect the department's wants. He said it in a significant sort of way, and the action which followed was still more significant. Council voted that a special committee be appointed; and Chairman Hamilton selected Messrs. Brown, McGarry and Holbrook. And Mr. Day, Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, Chairman of the Committee on Fire and Water, and hitherto the high muck-a-muck on all matters pertaining to the department—where was he? It was a cold Day, and he was left.

Who Can Do Better?

To-day we throw upon our counters 150 pieces half-wool dress goods, in all new shades, and offer the choice out of the lot this day only at 8½ cents per yard. Also 50 pieces all wool ladies' cloth at 39 cents per yard, advertised by others at 45 cents, as a leader. We are positively the lowest on every article. It will not pay you to waste time trying to buy goods cheap elsewhere. Our prices are incomparable. We have the biggest dress goods stock in the city. Way-down prices on table linens, towels and napkins. We are stirring them all up. Monster purchases place us in a position to offer the best values ever known. You cannot afford to pass us on cotton flannels. You cannot afford to purch se gloves elsewhere. We are the only practical glove-fitters. To-day and every day bargains are offered; not only in one department, but all through the house. We hold the great crowds, and each day the increase is greater. New light has been placed in our house, which makes it light as day. Every convenience is afforded our patrons by large additions to our clerical force, giving us the largest number in the city. New goods are arriving every day. The boom has fairly set in and from now on the rush will be great. Come, see, hear, and believe. J. T. SHEWARD.

Grand Opera House.

From Frank Conant, the Treasurer of the Grand Opera House, the TIMES learns that the season will open with the renowned tragedian, Madame Janauschek, supported by a splendid company, and will hold the boards at the Grand for the week of October 5. He says that the box office will open Thursday morning, October 1, at 10 o'clock sharp, and parties desiring the choice of seats should be there early.

A RIGHT OF WAY,

And How It Was Contested by J. V. York

ENGINEER JEWETT FELLED WITH A ROCK.

A Strip of Land that Has Enhanced Wonderfully in Value of Late—An Appeal to the Courts.

J. V. York holds a five years' lease on a strip of ground aligning the river on the west side near the Downey avenue bridge. This lease, he claims, was executed and acknowledged by Mrs. Wilhart, the owner of the property, but was not placed on record. The lease has now about sixteen months to run.

York formerly devoted the land to growing feed, but last year it was flooded and a good deal of sand was deposited upon it, rendering it nearly or quite useless. Recently, however, the land came into some request, as it lay across the projected line of the San Gabriel Valley Railway. The company purchased from Mrs. Wilhart a right of way across the piece, paying her therefor $500. But when the company attempted to grade its road-bed across the land the other day it was met with vigorous opposition from J. V. York, who claimed possession under his lease, and would not vacate for a less consideration than $500. The Company attempted to secure what it considered its rights, and on Monday evening began to throw up a roadbed on the lot. Yesterday morning the work was resumed, but the tenant, York, was on hand early and drove the laborers away. Two wagons, loaded with dirt, were on the ground, one of which the men succeeded in dumping, but the other was temporarily abandoned, the horses being unhitched from it and driven away. York held the fort unmolested until the arrival of the Pasadena train, when Treasurer Washburn and Chief Engineer Jewett stepped over to see what the matter was. Washburn was armed with the Company's deeds from Mrs. Wilhart, upon which he demanded possession of the land. York, in turn, was equipped with his lease, upon which he insisted on holding the land. After a slight wordy controversy, Washburn and Jewett declared their intention to dump the wagon load of dirt on the ground. York declared that they should do nothing of the kind, and jumped upon the wagon. Jewett and Washburn took hold of opposite ends of one of the side boards for the purpose of lifting it, and York put his foot on it to hold it down. Washburn says that York picked up a large stone and first menaced him with it, but quickly turned and hurled it at Jewett. Jewett dodged, but the missile struck him in the back of the head, stretching him on the ground, senseless for a moment. This ended hostilities.

Mr. Jewett was helped up town as soon as he was sufficiently restored, and his wound was dressed. It proves an ugly scalp wound, but is not necessarily dangerous.

York says that Jewett addressed an opprobrious epithet to him and was about to strike him with a rock before he (York) hurled the stone that laid Jewett low. This version is not substantiated by Mr. Washburn.

York was arrested on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, and his examination was set for October 1, before Justice Ranney, with bail fixed at $250.

Warrants were sworn out for the arrest of Washburn and Jewett on the charges of misdemeanor, and their cases are to come before Justice Austin.

York visited the TIMES office last evening and related his story substantially as given above. He admitted that the land in dispute was of little or no value, especially since the flood; that the sum of $500 demanded by him from the railroad was considerably in excess of the rent he was paying, but he thought that was his own affair.

"Then you would have made a pretty good speculation of it if you had got your price?" queried the reporter.

"Well, I calculate I should have held my own," responded York.

When asked why he did not carry his case into court to protect his rights, he said he was too poor a man to fight it in the courts; the other way suited him best.

CONNOLLY COUNTERED.

An Allegation of Mrs. Josie Connolly in the Perkins-Baldwin Case Exploded.

On the 25th of August the TIMES published a statement made by Josie M. Connolly showing the connection of herself and the notorious witness Gregory with the Baldwin-Perkins breach-of-promise case, in the course of which Mrs. Connolly used the name of R. H. Lloyd, Esq., the well-known attorney of San Francisco, alleging or intimating that Lloyd gave Gregory money for his deposition and then cheated him out of his money, etc., etc.

The TIMES made no statement of its own touching this feature of the case, but merely published the sworn and sensational statement of Mrs. Connolly, which was obtained in a regular and legitimate way and given to the public as a part of the general history of the case.

It now appears that the woman drew a powerful long bow as respects at least one feature of the case, viz., that connecting Lloyd with it as counsel for Baldwin. That gentleman denies, point-blank, that he is or has been an attorney in the case. It appears that Baldwin wished Lloyd to take charge of it, but the latter declined; and the only connection he had with the matter was this: Baldwin's agent went to Lloyd's office and said that he was a witness by the name of Gregory whose testimony he wished taken (pursuant to notice already given) before Holland Smith, Notary Public. Baldwin's agent outlined to Lloyd the testimony that the witness would give, and shortly before the time appointed for taking the deposition, the agent went to Lloyd's office with Gregory, whom the attorney says he had never seen before, and had only a short talk with him before the deposition commenced. Gregory was examined before Mr. Lloyd, his deposition taken and signed, and that was the entire extent of Lloyd's connection with the case, and the last seen of the witness by Lloyd, who says he never had any talk whatsoever with Gregory about money matters, and never paid him any money directly or indirectly; never had any of his money in his possession, and never had anything whatever to do with or say to him, excepting as above related.

These facts appears to be conclusive and to completely exonerate Mr. Lloyd.

LOCKED OUT,

With an Unwelcome Visitor Behind the Door.

There was a sensation in the Kurtz block, on North Main street, shortly after midnight this morning. A prominent and well-known Briton had returned from San Francisco during the day, and at night sought his room in the aforesaid block. But a fair damosel of Spanish blood was there before him. Hearing of his arrival in town, she had climbed, crawled and tumbled until she got in by the back way, after almost incredible exertions; and when he tried the door she sat behind it and held the key. He threatened and cajoled, but she would none of it, and he finally went for help. Returning with Officer Mc-Mahon, that sturdy peace-preserver demanded entrance. The dame merely replied, "Do your duty as an officer." Then McMahon gave a jump and put his big shoulder to the door and it caved. The Briton got hold of his cash and watch and then fled easy. He did not care to further trouble his fair one, of whom he plainly stood in considerable awe. She, however, will to-day swear out a warrant against him for battery, alleging that he struck her. She stated that she had lived with him for five years as his mistress, but that recently he got her to sign papers releasing him from all obligations. She claims that she did not fully understand the meaning of the documents. It is thought likely that there will be some sensational developments in the case.

With a Religious Paper.

Boston Transcript.]

"Tommy," exclaimed Mrs. Fogg, don't you know it's Sunday? Don't you know it is naughty to make a kite to-day?"

"But, my dear," interposed Fogg, "don't you see he is making it with a religious paper?"

"Oh!" said Mrs. F., "I didn't notice that."

NOT DUBOIS.

Bound to be His Mother-in-Law, Anyhow.

A young man connected by ties of blood with the leading grocery of the First Ward, and soon, it is understood, to have a pecuniary interest in the concern, was the victim of a bad case of mistaken identity the other day. He was in a horse-car with a friend, when a middle-aged lady approached him triumphantly and said, "Ha! Ha! I've found you at last, have I?"

"Beg pardon, madam, but you have the advantage of me," he said politely.

"What! Do you mean to say that you ain't Dubois? You're the fellow that married my daughter up in Oregon two years ago, and then run away and left her. I know you. I've got your picture, and I can prove it's you."

"But my name isn't Dubois," protested the now worried young man. "It's Cr——. I never saw you before, and I never married any girl in Oregon, and never ran away and left her. You've mistaken the man."

"No, I hain't," she persisted, while the victim's companion put in his oar to say, "Say, aren't you ashamed to go back on your mother-in-law that way?"

The unhappy young man finally got his Nemesis to let him alone for the time, promising that if she would come to his office next day he would prove to her satisfaction that he wasn't her son-in-law. Next day she did call at the office, and the young man felt that he had plain sailing. He called up one of the clerks and asked, "What is my name?" But the clerk "dropped," and replied he didn't know what the real name of the gentleman was, but he was known here as Cr——. Then the veteran manager was called out, and he was equally provoking. In answer to the old lady's queries, none of the force could certify that the victim's name wasn't Dubois, or that he didn't have half a dozen wives up the coast. When the alleged mother-in-law produced the picture of Dubois, they all agreed that it favored Henry mightily, and Henry became very sick. It was simply a case of strong resemblance, but it created no end of fun.

HIGH LICENSE.

After Long Delay Council Passes the License Ordinance.

The license ordinance passed by Council yesterday is of considerable radicalness. The changes from preceding license rates are neither many nor very marked, save in one or two departments. Circuses are not encouraged, the license hereafter to be demanded from them being one thousand dollars a day. Side-shows will have to pay $25 a day. Dance houses are practically prohibited by a license of $30 per day. It is on the liquor interests, however, that the ordinance puts its foot down hard. Brewers and distillers will pay $10 per month; wholesale liquor dealers $20 (formerly $5 and $10). Saloons, clubhouses and all other places where liquors or intoxicating drinks of any sort are sold or given away in retail quantities, now paying $10 per month (and a very few $15), will have to come up with $50 on the first Monday of each month, when all licenses are payable in advance. Dr. French and Mr. McGarry were the only Councilmen who voted against this figure. It is further provided that no license shall be issued for any saloon or similar place without a written permit from the Police Commissioners. Anyone who sells or gives liquor to any minor shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $500; and his license shall be revoked, and no new one will be issued to him for one year. The Sunday legislation has been dumped by Council to weed out the saloons. Chief of Police Horner stood by as this section was passed, and said: "That'll 'knock' more than half of all the saloons in the city."

A Smashed Buggy.

W. C. Cossar was driving up Alameda street with a horse and buggy yesterday, and somewhere between Jefferson and Washington streets, he met one of Nadeau's heavy freight teams, hauling down a load of casks. The driver, instead of being in his seat in the saddle, was walking along on the railroad track conversing with a companion, allowing the team to follow its own course. When opposite the load of casks, Mr. Cossar's horse took fright and backed the buggy into the freighting wagon. Mr. Cossar thinks it a miracle almost that himself and horse were not both killed. As it was, the buggy was considerably demoralized, a wheel and an axle being broken. Mr. Cossar complains that the accident was largely due to the carelessness of the driver of the big team, who, had he been in his place, might have given prope leeway and saved the smash-up.

HELIANTHUS OLIVERI.

New Sunflower Discovered by an Angelous Botanist.

Prof. J. C. Oliver, late principal of the Eighth street school, is an enthusiastic botanist. About a year ago he discovered, in the lowlands on the road to Santa Monica, an entirely new and very marked variety of sunflower. The flower, heretofore unknown, was sent to the venerable Professor Asa Gray of Harvard College, one of the most noted botanists in the world. In honor of the discoverer, Prof. Gray named the plant, Helianthus Oliveri (Oliver's sunflower). Prof. Oliver has specimens blooming at his residence on Hill street, between Tenth and Eleventh. One is sixteen feet tall; and he has 150 flowers on one plant. The flowers are about two inches in diameter, and pale yellow in color. The leaves are ashy gray. It is needless to say that the discoverer is as "happy as a big sunflower."

THE CABLE ROAD.

The Eleven-ton Cable Successfully Stretched Yesterday.

Early yesterday morning the work of stretching the cable of the Second Street Cable road was begun. The end of the cable was put into the grip of a dummy, and the dummy was dragged along by sixteen horses and mules. The undertaking was less troublesome than had been feared, and at 1 o'clock p. m. the whole cable was in its place. The two ends will be spliced to-day, but the road will probably not be opened to public travel for a couple of weeks, it being intended to give everything the most thorough testing first. The turntable is now being put in at the eastern terminus of the line.
